ON, ON, PSJA, A tribute you stand. This year, 1961, concluding a half-century of growth and development in the old familiar brick building on the highway, Pharr-San Juan-Alamo High School is making a transition to a new, more modern building, better equipped to serve the needs of a progressive school with a growing student body.

For service rendered, knowledge tendered--a Benediction planned. We of the annual staff wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for the role you have played in our lives by dedicating this, the 1961 BEAR MEMORIES, TO YOU, PSJA.

Within thy walls our dreams have grown, and seeds of many friendships sown. Long after your foot-worn steps lie idle and voices no longer echo through your age softened halls, we will remember the dreams, hopes, fears and friendships we've known; we will remember the victories and defeats we've known, and the lessons we've learned from them.

Through all our years, as we go through life, we shall remember you; you have always been and will always be OUR HERITAGE, OUR SCHOOL!

J. L. STAMBAUGH,
High School Principal.

"Some interesting facts taken from a 1917-18 Pharr-San Juan School Bulletin."

"In 1915, people not contented with the inadequate school facilities which their respective towns (Pharr and San Juan) offered, voted unanimously to come together and build a centrally located high school building. Immediately following the election six acres of ground were purchased and work was begun on the beautiful building known as the Pharr-San Juan School Building....."

"At a cost of approximately $50,000, the high school building was erected and equipped. It is a commodious and well constructed and strong building, including the basement story, and is strictly modern and adequate to the needs of the school. Besides 10 classrooms, the building contains 2 offices, a library room, a splendid auditorium with a seating capacity of 400, and laboratories for different scientific courses....."

The first all girl marching unit at PSJA was begun in 1936. It was organized by Mrs. Robert Myer. The uniform was made up of billed hat, jacket and slacks.

In 1939 the unit which had been called the "Drill Squad" was renamed "Cadettes." In keeping with the mascot of PSJA the Cadettes adopted the name "Bear-ettes" in 1946 and has been called that since.

"I NEVER thought I could get one of those glamorous front-office secretarial jobs—because, till a few months ago, nobody seemed to notice me at all. Then I heard about a business college that seemed entirely different—a school where you spend as much time developing yourself as you do developing your skills. It turned out to be just what I needed. Today, I've got an exciting secretarial job with a wonderful firm. Now when people ask me where I work... I'm proud of my job and of myself."
